SYNOPSIS

Hear the testimony of the people of Palestine as they voice their stories of suffering centered around a wailing wall. They cry of help, for peace and freedom. They demonstrate against the separation wall that destroyed lives and demolished homes. Listen to the people as they grieve for the spilt blood of innocent children and loved ones, a lost youth, and the horrific discrimination and tortures they have endured since 1967. Listen to their stories about the wall veiled in racism, a wall with an agenda of ethnic cleansing, a wall that made it impossible to live a normal life. Their pleas must not go unheard. Join them as they fight for their cause-a lost homeland, the safety of their children, and for an end to injustice. It's a campaign that hopes to break down the wall, and forever silent the wailing. Listen and learn.
